

WHITE OLIVER AMUNDSON & GALLAGHER, APC

WE CAN TRY ANY CASE IN ANY COURT

The trial attorneys at White Oliver Amundson & Gallagher, APC specialize in defending a wide variety of civil cases. The bulk of the firm's casework involves corporate, business, professional liability and employment litigation in Southern California.

"We have a depth of experience that ranges from business and corporate litigation to personal injury to products liability to construction cases," says Daniel M. White, who has tried close to a hundred cases to jury verdict. Three of the firm's attorneys are members of the prestigious American Board of Trial Advocates, and all four named partners are listed in Super Lawyers® as well as AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Collectively, the partners have practiced law for more than 125 years. That depth of experience makes a big difference. "Because of the broad field of work that we've taken on, there are very few circumstances that come to us where we don't have prior experience that bears pretty heavily on a particular assignment," says White. Clients benefit from the economies of scale that come into play. "Things that might take other firms a long time to do, we can, because of our experience, put them together in very short order. We have answers at the tip of our fingers that other folks might not have."
